

Asahi Refining Releases 2024 Lunar Dragon 1oz Silver Round In Celebration of Chinese Lunar New Year

Asahi Refining is pleased to announce the launch of the 2024 Lunar Dragon 1oz Silver Round. This release marks the first in what will be an ongoing series of gold and silver bullion celebrating the Chinese Lunar New Year.

“Asahi Refining's dedication to producing products that resonate with both collectors and investors is underscored by the launch of the 2024 Lunar Dragon 1oz Silver Round. This release blends artistic craftsmanship with the rich symbolism of the Lunar New Year, resulting in an investment piece that holds both aesthetic appeal and meaning.” explains Matt Pragg, Commercial Manager for Asahi Refining North America.

The front of the Asahi Refining 2024 Lunar Dragon 1oz Silver Round proudly displays the Asahi Refining brand, giving the product global recognition and acceptance, and allowing for its inclusion for holding in Individual Retirement Accounts (IRA). Beneath the company mark features the elegant "Lunar Calendar Series" inscription, signifying its place in what will be an ongoing series of Lunar Calendar products.

The reverse side of the Asahi Refining 2024 Lunar Dragon Silver Round portrays the majestic Chinese zodiac symbol of the Dragon. Honoring the year 2024, which corresponds to the Wood Dragon, the design depicts a dragon gracefully entwined around a Cypress Tree. The depiction captures the spirit of the lunar year, symbolizing growth, prosperity, and strength, and reflects the positive energies associated with the Wood Dragon.
